- Older Ambulances– Mann reviewed the ambulances in the county that have low mileage, but are beginning to get older. He, along with the other Ambulance Service Directors, would like to work out some type of agreement that would allow the Ambulance Services to share ambulances among the services to better utilize the miles on each. The older ambulances are stationed in Idalia and South Y-W fleets; both ambulances have less than 7,000 miles on them and are at least 10-years-old. Mann mentioned the group believed the discussion needed to start with the Commissioners. Mann shared that the Gary Baucke does not believe that the City of Yuma is interested in participating in a fleet swap.

Knudsen said that the Wray City Manager appears open for further discussion. The Commissioners agreed that they too were open to this discussion. Lonnie mentioned there would need to be some type of a county-wide maintenance program to make this work. The City of Wray has three ambulances that vary from 60,000 to 125,000 miles. Chairman Wiley requested the ambulance services work together to formulate a rotation plan and return for further discussion.

Larsen reported that his company found a lot of outdated, substandard, equipment within the region upon inspection of their newly acquired business. Their first priority is to upgrade the equipment, focusing on the commercial accounts and then moving to the residential accounts. Vistabeam anticipates the internet service to improve speeds up to 10 megabytes uploading and downloading. Commissioner Bushner requested Larsen speak about their reliability and how they will cover any outages. Larson said Vistabeam has the ability to link into a microwave path to area fiber cables for redundancy purposes; therefore minimizing the effects of unforeseen outages. Larson also mentioned that Vistabeam has a Pole Attachment Agreement with the City of Yuma and is currently working with the City of Wray on a similar agreement.

The Commissioners explained to Larsen that a single internet drop is needed to complete the Courthouse server room and cabling project that began last summer. Tonelli added that this project could be completed once that single drop is made available. Matthew Bochsler responded by saying that Vistabeam will strive to provide a dedicated line for the Courthouse in the next month or so.

Commercial packages are available from 10 megabytes to 100 megabytes. Larsen mentioned that Vistabeam has been able to obtain Revolving Loan Funds in other cities and counties to build infrastructure. Carpio said she would provide the Northeast Revolving Loan Fund information for Larsen so that he may pursue funding. Commissioner Bushner made note that he understood the position that this lawsuit has caused. The Commissioners would like to see Dee Ann help the district if possible.

Stults made note that the deadline for Special Assessment Certifications was October 1, 2015. According to Dee Ann, the Treasurer's current computer system does not allow late entries; therefore, she will be forced to produce notices manually. This will be a big expense to her office. She, too, understands the position of the water district and suggests that the groundwater district bill this year on their own and certify the special assessment by the due date for next year.
Attorney Ken Fellman was contacted in this matter. Fellman will follow up with the attorney for the District. This matter is to be discussed more at the next meeting.
