Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant, and Substance Use Site-Based Program

Deadline: Jul 1, 2024

Purpose: The Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant, and Substance Use Site-Based Program (Short Title: COSSUP) provides grants to develop, implement, and/or expand comprehensive programs in response to the overdose crisis and the impact of illicit opioids, stimulants, or other substances. The program provides resources to support state, local, tribal, and territorial efforts to reduce substance misuse and overdose deaths, increase access to prevention, harm reduction, treatment, and recovery services, and enhance public safety while supporting victims.

Funds may be used for:

- Identifiable and accessible prescription drug take-back programs for unused controlled substances found in the home and used by hospitals and long-term care facilities
- Law enforcement and other first responder deflection and diversion programs
- Education and prevention programs to connect law enforcement agencies with K-12 students
- Comprehensive, real-time, regional information collection, analysis, and dissemination
- Naloxone for law enforcement and other first responders
- Substance use education and prevention programs to connect law enforcement agencies with K-12 students
- Pre-booking or post-booking treatment alternative-to-incarceration programs, such as pretrial, prosecutor, and court diversion or intervention programs, that serve individuals at high risk for overdose or SUD
- Court programming to prioritize and expedite treatment and recovery services to individuals at high risk for overdose
- Evidence-based treatment, harm reduction activities, and recovery support services that are well coordinated between in-custody and community-based providers
- Transitional or recovery housing and peer recovery support services
- Embedding social workers, peers, and persons with lived experience to help people navigate the justice system and connect them to treatment and recovery services
- Field-initiated projects that bring together justice, behavioral health, and public health to implement new or promising practices

Areas of Focus: Prevention, Harm Reduction, Treatment, And Recovery Services

Amount of Funding: $1,000,000 in the rural/tribal subcategory

Project period: 3 years

Eligibility: Eligible applicants are city, township, county, and federally recognized tribal governments.
