During this event, a handler will assist the participant in getting onto the sheep. When the sheep is released, it usually starts to run. Participants who can stay on the longest will be awarded a trophy, and all participants will receive a commemorative plaque. Children must be between 5 and 7 years of age at the time of the event and weigh no more than 60 pounds. Participants must be a Yuma County resident. Participants will be provided a helmet and vest for protection during the event. Participants will receive information before the event and one complimentary PRCA Rodeo ticket.

Slots are limited to 10 participants per night. Participants will be selected in the order that applications are received. This agreement releases the Yuma County Fair & Rodeo from all liability relating to injuries that may occur during the event.

I _____ (Parent or Legal Guardian Name) agree to hold the Yuma County Fair & Rodeo entirely free from any liability, including financial responsibility for injuries incurred, and I acknowledge the risks involved in Rodeo and interacting with livestock. Additionally, I swear that the participant has no conditions that will increase the likelihood of the participant experiencing injuries while participating in this activity.
